

Union OKs strike at AT&T; contracts end April 4

March 23 2009

(AP) -- Union workers at AT&T are giving their leaders the authority to call a strike as part of negotiations for a new contract covering 112,500 employees.

Several contracts covering workers at the phone company's landline division expire on April 4. AT&T Inc. is trying to make the employees pay more for their health care, among other concessions.

The Communications Workers of America says 88 percent of members covered by the contracts voted in favor of a possible strike.

AT&T spokesman Walt Sharp says the strike authorization is "expected and routine at this stage in the negotiations." AT&T is the nation's largest employer of union labor.

©2009 The Associated Press. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.

Citation: Union OKs strike at AT&T; contracts end April 4 (2009, March 23) retrieved 25 April 2024 from <https://phys.org/news/2009-03-union-oks-att-april.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.
--