

Real estate website Zillow soars in IPO debut

July 20 2011

(AP) -- Shares of real estate website Zillow have more than doubled in their trading debut.

It's the latest Internet company to climb sharply in its first day of trading following strong openings from jobs networking site LinkedIn, music service Pandora and Russian search engine Yandex.

Zillow, founded in 2004, provides online listings for more than 100 million homes for sale and rent. The portal's "Zestimate" helps estimate property values.

Investors are bidding up Zillow Inc. stock, even though the Seattle company has never posted an annual profit.

It priced shares for $20 per share late Tuesday, $2 more than the top of the range it had predicted Friday.

In midday trading Wednesday, Zillow had risen to $43.02 after trading as high as $60 earlier in the session.

The stock is trading under the symbol "Z" on the Nasdaq exchange.

©2011 The Associated Press. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.

Citation: Real estate website Zillow soars in IPO debut (2011, July 20) retrieved 26 March 2023 from <https://phys.org/news/2011-07-real-estate-website-zillow-soars.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.