

Verizon Communications 4Q loss widens

January 22 2013

---

Verizon Communications' fourth-quarter loss widened, dragged down by restructuring, pension and Superstorm Sandy costs. The company activated a record number of new devices on its contract-based plans during the period.

The parent of the country's biggest wireless carrier lost $4.23 billion, or $1.48 per share, for the period ended Dec. 31. That compares with a loss of $2.02 billion or 71 cents per share, a year ago.

Adjusted earnings were 38 cents per share.

Operating revenue rose 6 percent to $30.05 billion from $28.44 billion.

Analysts expected earnings of 50 cents per share on revenue of $29.82 billion.

Verizon Communications Inc. activated 2.1 million net new devices on contract-based plans, helped by the iPhone 5's launch and by data plans rolled out over the summer.

The company's stock fell 1 percent in premarket trading Tuesday.

Copyright 2013 The Associated Press. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.

Citation: Verizon Communications 4Q loss widens (2013, January 22) retrieved 6 February 2023 from <https://phys.org/news/2013-01-verizon-4q-loss-widens.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.