

Sprint offers six months free Spotify to its Framily

April 29 2014

Sprint is bringing Spotify into the Framily.

The cellphone carrier said Tuesday it would offer a free six-month subscription to Spotify Premium to all new and existing customers on the Framily group discount plan. The plan costs upward of $25 a month for up to 10 friends and family members for unlimited talk, text and 1 gigabyte of cellular data.

Spotify Premium, which gives users unlimited online and mobile access to 20 million tracks, normally costs $10 a month. After the six months are up, Sprint is offering Spotify Premium for $8 a month if there are up to five people subscribing, or $5 a month if six to 10 people subscribe.

The deal tying music streaming with a cellphone plan follows Beats Music's tie-up with AT&T in January.

© 2014 The Associated Press. All rights reserved.

Citation: Sprint offers six months free Spotify to its Framily (2014, April 29) retrieved 20 March 2024 from <https://phys.org/news/2014-04-sprint-months-free-spotify-framily.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.
--