

Online craft market Etsy files for IPO

March 5 2015

Etsy, the online marketplace for handmade goods, has filed for a stock offering to raise at least $100 million.

Amid a flood of investment in tech startups, Etsy filed the papers for its initial public offering Wednesday with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Founded in 2005, Etsy reported revenue last year of $195 million, and a loss of $15 million. It had some 685 employees at the end of 2014.

The stock will trade under the symbol "ETSY," according to the documents, which included no date or pricing.

Last year, Etsy bought French-based rival "A Little Market" as part of a global expansion effort.

Etsy has raised funds from venture firms including Union Square Ventures.

Based in Brooklyn, New York, Etsy describes itself as an online market to "discover handmade items, vintage goods and craft supplies you can't find anywhere else," matching artisans and sellers with consumers

© 2015 AFP

Citation: Online craft market Etsy files for IPO (2015, March 5) retrieved 25 April 2024 from <https://phys.org/news/2015-03-online-craft-etsy-ipo.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.