

France TV cyberattack probe focused on 'Russian hackers': judicial source

June 9 2015

A picture taken on April 9, 2015 shows computer screens at TV5Monde headquarters in Paris, after the channel was hacked by individuals claiming to belong to the Islamic State group

The investigation into the cyberattack suffered by France's TV5Monde television channel in April is now focusing on "a group of Russian hackers", a judicial source told AFP on Tuesday.

The cyberattack was carried out by unknown persons claiming to represent the Islamic State group, with jihadist propaganda messages placed on the station's website, and Facebook and Twitter accounts.

The judicial source was confirming information first published by L'Express newspaper.

© 2015 AFP

Citation: France TV cyberattack probe focused on 'Russian hackers': judicial source (2015, June 9) retrieved 20 April 2024 from

<https://phys.org/news/2015-06-france-tv-cyberattack-probe-focused.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.