

Resort, tour company warn customers after data breach

February 26 2017

A resort and a tour company are warning customers that their credit card information and other data may have been stolen.

KHON-TV reports Turtle Bay Resort and Roberts Hawaii both found a code in their websites that copies information at checkout.

Customers could be impacted if they placed orders with the tour company from July 30, 2015 to Dec. 14, 2016.

The resort is warning customers who used cards for purchases from Oct. 23 to Dec. 22 of last year.

Any unauthorized charges should be reported.

Hawaii News Now reported Roberts Hawaii discovered the malware after customers who'd recently made online purchases complained about subsequent fraudulent charges.

© 2017 The Associated Press. All rights reserved.

Citation: Resort, tour company warn customers after data breach (2017, February 26) retrieved 27 April 2024 from <https://phys.org/news/2017-02-resort-company-customers-breach.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.
--