

Heavy storms lash Poland, leaving 2 dead and 39 injured

October 6 2017

Polish officials say that a heavy storm that ravaged parts of western Poland has killed two people and injured 39.

Pawel Fraczak, a spokesman for firefighters, said Friday that tens of thousands of households were also without electricity after falling trees broke power lines when the storm hit overnight.

The victims were a 67-year-old man who was trying to secure his house's roof and a 58-year-old woman crushed by a falling tree.

Prime Minister Beata Szydlo visited the town of Zielona Gora in the region the hardest hit, meeting with local officials and vowing financial help for repairs.

Firefighters also worked Friday to remove fallen trees and help secure hundreds of torn-off roofs.

The storm also devastated the park of the Habsburg Palace in the town of Zywiec.

© 2017 The Associated Press. All rights reserved.

Citation: Heavy storms lash Poland, leaving 2 dead and 39 injured (2017, October 6) retrieved 18 April 2024 from <https://phys.org/news/2017-10-heavy-storms-lash-poland-dead.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.