

SAP says profits up in first quarter

13 April 2012

German software giant SAP said on Friday it was sticking to its full-year targets for 2012 after profits rose in the first three months.

"After a preliminary review of our first quarter 2012 performance... we are reiterating our full-year outlook," SAP said in a statement.

In the first three months, the group said it achieved record business in the Asia-Pacific and Japan region "and double-digit growth in many markets including Latin America and Germany."

Overall sales rose by 11 percent to 3.35 billion euros ($4.4 billion) in the January-March period and operating profit grew by 6.0 percent to 630 million euros.

Sales of software and software-related services rose by 12.4 percent to 2.63 billion euros.

The figures sparked a strong rally in SAP's share price on the Frankfurt stock exchange where the stock was the biggest gainer, rising 2.25 percent to 51.81 euros.

SAP said it was expecting a "strong" second quarter and, for the year as a whole, revenues from software and software-related services were projected to rise by 10-12 percent from 11.35 billion euros in 2011.

Operating profit was set to reach 5.05-5.25 billion euros, compared with 4.71 billion euros last year.

SAP said it would publish detailed first-quarter results on April 25.

(c) 2012 AFP

APA citation: SAP says profits up in first quarter (2012, April 13) retrieved 21 October 2019 from <https://phys.org/news/2012-04-sap-profits-quarter.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.